Resident Spotlight...

Vaun McIntosh

Vaun was born August 11, 1916 at the farm home of her parents, Albert and Grace Beers, located four miles north and one mile west of the small town of Riverdale, NE. She grew up in the Riverdale and Kearney area, graduating from Kearney High in the spring of 1936. Vaun worked many odd jobs until the spring of 1941, which found her visiting her sister in northern California, where she met her future husband, Gerald, who was also from Nebraska. They were married that fall. Gerald was going into the army so Vaun came back to Nebraska to work. After Gerald got out of the service they went back to California for several years. They came back to Nebraska with four children and started farming.

As a very busy housewife, Vaun raised chickens, milked cows and helped feed hogs. They raised their potatoes and a huge vegetable garden, canning over 400 jars of fruit and vegetables, besides what was eaten fresh.

In between times Vaun sewed for their four daughters and son.

“We got our farm paid off and it was ours.” In 1987 they moved to St. Edward. Vaun’s life mate passed away after over 61 years together.

Vaun enjoys reading all kinds of books and spending time with family, including her ten grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Employee Spotlight...
Sara Werner

Sara has been a cook at Cloverlodge Care Center since June of 2011. She graduated from St. Edward High School in 2001. Sara went to Southeast Community College graduating with an Associates degree in Business and Accounting and later attended Doane College in Grand Island to receive her Bachelors degree in Business.

Sara lives in St. Edward with her husband Peter, who she's been married to for four years, and her dog Mattie.

Sara is the daughter of Susan (Sorensen) Nissen and Pat Mahoney. Outside of work, Sara also helps her husband with his trucking business. In her free time Sara enjoys wine making, scrap booking, horseback riding, spending time with family and friends and bringing Mattie to visit the residents at Cloverlodge.

Sara always has a friendly smile and enjoys visiting with everyone.
